Level 1B. Level 1B is first in the series. At this level, the text and the illustrations are kept simple and distraction free. There is a two-part design: a vocabulary section and a reading for meaning section. In the vocabulary section, the reader is asked to look at an illustration and then circle the word that corresponds to the illustration. In the reading for meaning section, there are illustrated texts (usually just a few words, or at most one sentence) and the reader is required to ...
